Definitions

A. Loans and Discounts

- (1) Figures for “total of banks and shinkin banks” include yen-denominated loans in accounts held in Japan (excluding offshore accounts), foreign currency-denominated impact loans in accounts held in Japan and overseas, and Euro-yen impact loans in accounts held overseas. Loans to non-residents are excluded.
- (2) Figures exclude loans to financial institutions and the central government (except in the figures for foreign banks).
- (3) The category “city banks” includes four trust banks (Mitsubishi UFJ, Mizuho, Chuo Mitsui, Sumitomo), Saitama Resona Bank, Shinsei Bank and Aozora Bank. Same as below B. and C..
- (4) Since Shinhan Bank was domestically licensed in September 2009, the statistics for “foreign banks” are discontinuous before and after September 2009.
- (5) Because of the merger between Kanto Tsukuba Bank and Ibaraki Bank, the statistics for “regional banks” and “regional banks II” are discontinuous before and after March 2010.
- (6) Figures for “other surveyed domestically licensed banks”, which are released from January 2008, are the total amounts outstanding of the Japan Post Bank, Citibank Japan, Sony Bank, ORIX Trust and Banking Corporation, JSF Trust and Banking Co, and ShinGinko Tokyo.

B. Issuance of CP

- (1) “Amounts outstanding of CP underwritten by banks” represents month-end figures for the amount of CP (including ABCP) underwritten by city banks, regional banks, regional banks II, Norinchukin Bank, Shoko Chukin Bank, Shinkin Central Bank, financial instruments firms holding current accounts at the Bank of Japan, and foreign banks’ branches holding current accounts at the Bank of Japan. Figures include ABCP issued by foreign corporations (so-called Samurai ABCP), but exclude other CP issued by foreign corporations.
- (2) “Amounts outstanding of CP issued by banks” represents month-end figures for the amount of CP issued by city banks, regional banks, regional banks II, Norinchukin Bank, Shoko Chukin Bank, Shinkin Central Bank, and foreign banks’ branches holding current accounts at the Bank of Japan.

C. Loans and Discounts Adjusted for Special Items

(1) Special Items are:

(i) Securitization of loans

Changes in amounts outstanding of securitized loans from the previous year.

(ii) Adjustment for exchange rate changes

Changes in amounts outstanding of foreign-currency denominated impact loans converted into yen-denominated amounts, due to year-on-year U.S. dollar/yen rate changes.

(iii) Loan write-offs and related items

Total amount of loan write-offs in the past year, including those through special reserves, other losses on loan asset sales, renunciation of loan claims, and etc..

(2) Year to year change of average amounts outstanding after adjustments (percent)

= ((average amounts outstanding after adjustments in the base year) – (average amounts outstanding before adjustments in the previous year)) / (average amounts outstanding before adjustments in the previous year)

D. Deposits and CDs

(1) Figures exclude unsettled checks and bills.

(2) The category “city banks” includes Saitama Resona Bank.

(3) Because of the merger between Resona Bank and Resona Trust & Banking, the statistics for “City banks” are discontinuous before and after April 2009.

(4) Because of the merger between Kanto Tsukuba Bank and Ibaraki Bank, the statistics for “regional banks” and “regional banks II” are discontinuous before and after March 2010.

(5) Figures for “other surveyed domestically licensed banks”, which are released from January 2008, are the total amounts outstanding of four trust banks (Mitsubishi UFJ, Mizuho, Chuo Mitsui, Sumitomo), Shinsei Bank, Aozora Bank, the Japan Post Bank, Citibank Japan, the Japan Net Bank, Sony Bank, ORIX Trust and Banking Corporation and ShinGinko Tokyo. “Other surveyed domestically licensed banks” have different coverage in banks between “loans and discounts” and “deposits and CDs”.
